

How can I follow the Green route (Green OA) at UNIL?

If the journal of your choice is not covered by a Read and Publish agreement and it is a subscription journal (with or without an Open Access option), you should opt for the Green route. To do this, you will need to share your article as a PDF in IRIS, our institutional repository.

Once your PDF has been uploaded to the reference for your article on IRIS, you will need to indicate the licence, any applicable embargo, and the other constraints imposed by the publisher via a dialogue box (edit icon).
