Accessing your researcher profile

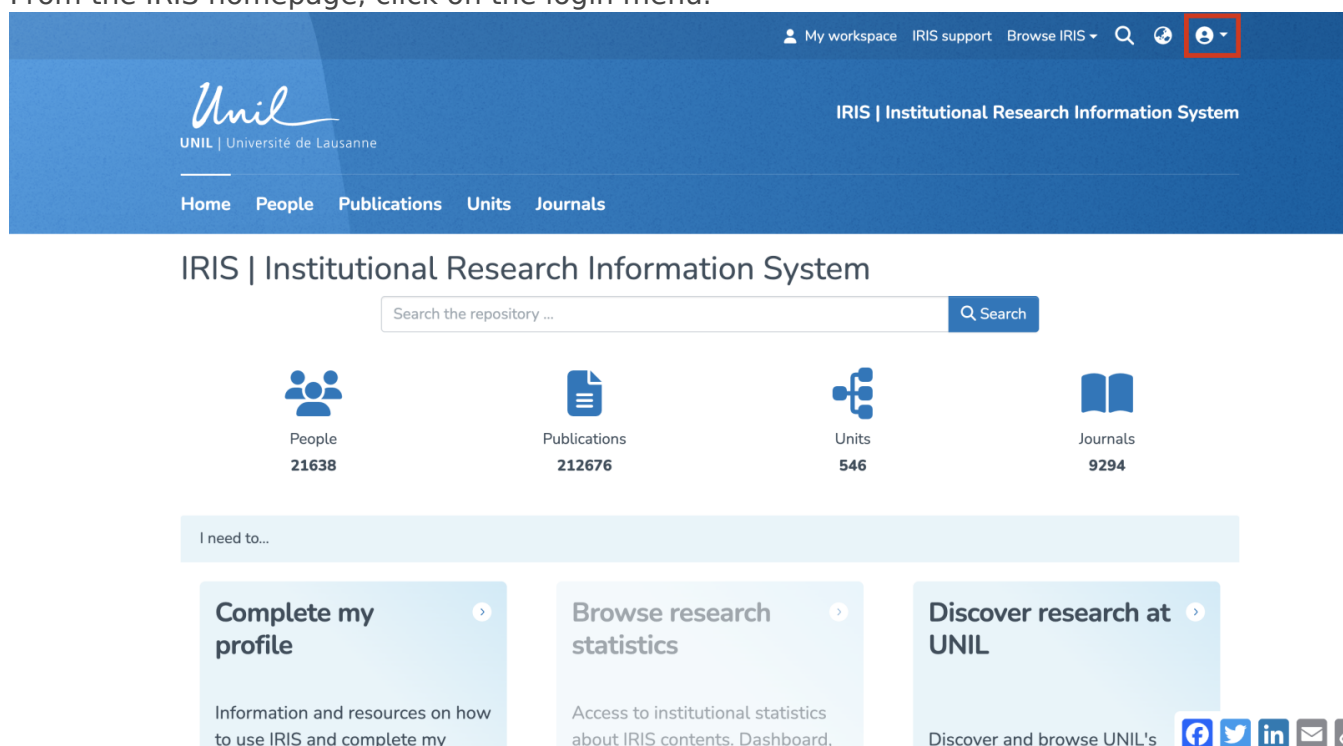

Your researcher profile gives you an overview of your personal and academic information. From this space, you can:

1. View and edit publications you've created, as well as those you're linked to.
2. Access your ORCID settings page.

There are two ways to access your researcher profile in IRIS:

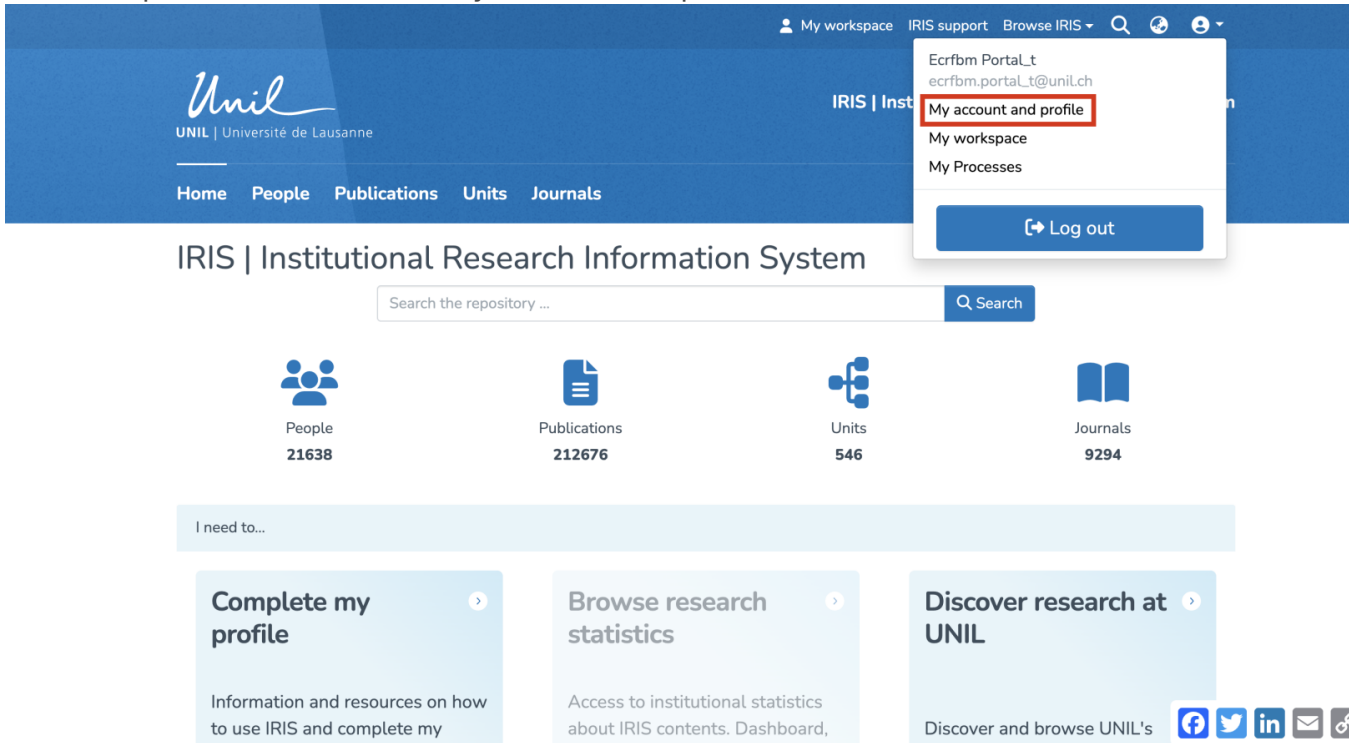

Accessing Your Profile via the Login Menu

1. From the IRIS homepage, click on the login menu.

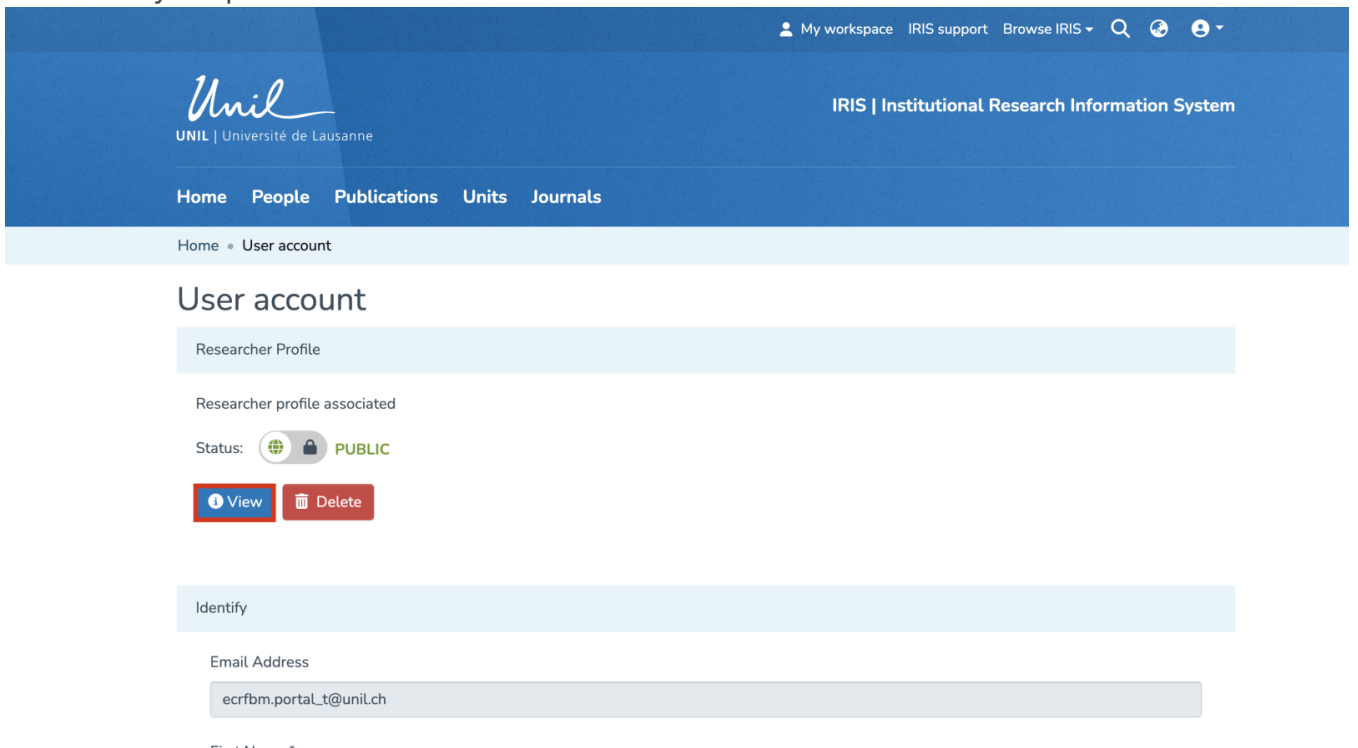

The screenshot displays the IRIS homepage. At the top right, the user menu is highlighted with a red box. Below the navigation bar, the main content area features a search bar and four large icons representing People (21638), Publications (212676), Units (546), and Journals (9294). At the bottom, there are three cards under the heading 'I need to...': 'Complete my profile', 'Browse research statistics', and 'Discover research at UNIL'. The 'Complete my profile' card includes a sub-heading and a brief description: 'Information and resources on how to use IRIS and complete my...'. The 'Browse research statistics' card includes a sub-heading and a brief description: 'Access to institutional statistics about IRIS contents. Dashboard,'. The 'Discover research at UNIL' card includes a sub-heading and a brief description: 'Discover and browse UNIL's'. Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Email, and RSS are located at the bottom right.

2. In the dropdown menu, select “My account and profile.”

3. You'll be redirected to a page titled “User account”. Click on “View” to open the full version of your profile.

4. You will then be directed to your researcher profile.
